

Please do not change or remove the "do not call list" law. Our family evenings are more pleasant without the calls. The callers' routine is annoying; they can't take no for an answer. If I want a product or service, I will seek it out.